A Farmington City Production

Character summations

Elwood P. Dowd - (35-50) a charming and articulate man, Elwood is accompanied regularly by his good friend, Harvey, who is invisible to most of the rest of the characters in the show.

Veta Louise Simmons - (35-45) the younger sister of Elwood, Veta is more concerned with elevating the status of herself and her daughter than with almost anything else.

Myrtle Mae Simmons - (18-23) the daughter of Veta and niece of Elwood, Myrtle is ready to be a young woman and not the child that her mother thinks she still is.

Miss Johnson - a maid in the Dowd family home

Mrs. Ethel Chauvenet - (60- older) Aunt to both Elwood and Veta, She is the woman of status and sophistication that Veta aspires to emulate.

Nurse Ruth Kelly - (20-30) the head nurse and assistant to Dr.'s Chumley and Sanderson. She is more than just a pretty face, though that seems to be all that most notice

Dr. Lyman Sanderson - (30-45) a younger psychiatrist striving to become the next lead physician for Chumley's Rest.

Dr. William Chumley - (50 - 65) The lead psychiatrist at Chumley's Rest, somewhat easily excited in spite of his training.

Betty Chumley - (30-65) the wife of Dr. William Chumley ... possible trophy wife?

Duane Wilson - (30-40) an orderly at Chumley's Rest, the muscle behind the operation

Judge Gaffney - (45-60) semi retired legal counsel to the Dowd family and a longtime family friend. Could be either male or female

Cabbie - (any age) a good natured blue collar sort, could be either male or female
